-----	X

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On February 3, 2021, the Court received a motion from Defendant, proceeding pro se, seeking early release in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. See ECF No. 136. Upon review of the motion, the Court re-appointed Defendant's prior counsel pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act ("CJA"). See ECF No. 137. On February 22, 2021, the Court received the attached letter from counsel indicating that he is no longer on the CJA Panel and cannot accept re-appointment.

In light of the foregoing, unless and until Defendant objects, Florian Miedel — the CJA lawyer on duty today — is appointed to represent Defendant in connection with the motion he filed (and any other application relating to COVID-19). Mr. Miedel shall immediately contact Defendant by telephone to advise him of this Order and confirm that he is willing to be so represented (the alternatives being to continue to proceed pro se or to retain counsel), and shall promptly file a letter indicating whether Defendant consents or objects to such representation.

Unless and until the Court orders otherwise, counsel shall file any supplemental papers on Defendant's behalf no later than March 8, 2021. The Government shall file any opposition by March 19, 2021, and Defendant shall file any reply by March 23, 2021. In their papers, the parties should address whether or when Defendant would become eligible to receive a COVID-19 vaccine.

SO ORDERED.

Re: Sharmell Cunningham – 14 Cr 109

Dear Judge Furman:

I was CJA counsel for Mr. Cunningham in the underlying case. I have been informed by AUSA Jane Chong that he has submitted a pro se motion for compassionate release, and that I have been re-appointed as counsel. Please be advised that I am no longer on the CJA panel, and have not done work in the SDNY for some time. I respectfully request, therefore, that new CJA counsel be appointed in my place.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Eric M. Sears
